

PRESS RELEASE - Conley Griggs Partin Welcomes Robb Howell and Opens South Georgia Office

Date | June 26, 2017

Conley Griggs Partin announces the addition of Robb Howell and the opening of its South Georgia office. Robb brings 20 years of a proven track record in plaintiffs catastrophic personal injury, medical malpractice and business torts litigation. He will manage the firm's offices in Moultrie, Georgia and is available to serve clients throughout South Georgia and North Florida. Robb enlarges the firm's roster to twelve lawyers serving our clients in all manner of high exposure injury and business tort litigation.